Memo No.732/Genl./O(IV)-221/PF Trust/SWC

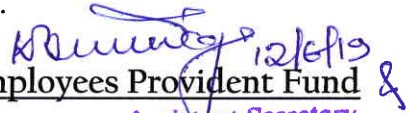

Date : 12.06.2019.

N O T I C E

In terms of the resolution adopted in the meeting of the West Bengal State Warehousing Corporation Employees Provident Fund Trustee Committee held on 17.04.2019, attention of the retired employees of WBSWC is hereby drawn to the fact that there is a list of 145 numbers of ex-employees of this Corporation whose some P.F. amount are still lying with the Trust of WBSWC Employees Provident Fund. Despite several efforts no communication could be made to the said ex-employees due to non-availability of present residential address for settlement of the aforesaid unclaimed PF amount.

In view of the aforesaid situation and as per decision of WBSWC Employees Provident Fund Trustee Committee in the aforesaid meeting, it is hereby notified that the above mentioned list of retired employees will be affixed in the Notice Board of Head Office and 28 numbers of SWC Warehouses in the Districts of West Bengal. As per the said list, the ex-employee or his/her legal heir may submit claim to this PF Trust with supporting documents i.e. any proof of employment under WBSWC and relation thereof within 30 (Thirty) days from the date of publication of this Notice. This may be noted that after exercise of the above process if no response is found from the said retired employees or their legal heirs the unclaimed amount of the retired employees who retired prior to the Financial Year 2014-15 may be written off from the Accounts of PF Trust from Financial Year 2019-20.

The Superintendents of the SWC Warehouses are hereby requested to do the needful and take initiative in this regard so that the aforesaid retired employees may be aware of such notice and claim their PF amount at their earliest.
